Organizing the Craft Stuff

Now if you want to be organized you will need something to keep your items in.

A small plastic filing box is good for paper. Sort your construction paper by color and place in separate file folders. You can also store your tissue paper here.

Find a small box to keep your recycled materials in. The plastic lids, cardboard tubes, etc.

Then you will need a small plastic box (like the one that you buy to keep school supplies in) to keep your glue stick, scissors, coloring crayons, and wiggly eyes. You might also want to put a pencil and ruler in this box.

You might want to keep the white glue and tacky glue in a cupboard so that it doesn't get spilled and ruin your craft supplies. If you buy paint you might want to keep it in the same cupboard.

You can keep the wax paper in your kitchen. And paper plates unless you buy them especially for crafting.

So you don't need a lot of stuff. The bare bones are colored paper, scissors, and a glue stick. Then your child can create cute items.
